

Pets that are ill may have a variety of tests performed by a veterinarian. Here is some information about the most common ones. Please check with our clinic to find out which tests are currently available.

Dog Tests

- Heartworm Disease
- The Importance Of A Urinalysis
- Thyroid Test In Dogs
- Fecal Examination
- Ear Swab Examination In Dogs
- Chest Radiograph \(X-RAY\)
- Understanding Blood Work: The Biochemical Profile
- Abdominal Radiograph \(X-RAY\)
- Understanding Blood Work: The Complete Blood Count \(CBC\)

Cat Tests

- The Importance Of A Urinalysis
- Thyroid Test In Cats
- Heartworm Test In Cats
- Feline Leukemia And Feline "AIDS" Testing
- Fecal Examination
- Abdominal Radiograph \(X-RAY\)
- Understanding Blood Work: The Complete Blood Count \(CBC\)
- Understanding Blood Work: The Biochemical Profile
- Chest Radiograph \(X-RAY\)
- Ear Swab Examination In Cats